December Holiday Play-in

There will be NO CLASSES SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2. We'll begin our winter quarter Monday, Dec. 3, with the first week of Sunday classes being Dec. 9.

On Sunday, December 16, we'll celebrate the season with holiday music with this different schedule:

1:30 - 2:30 Folk Orchestra play-in with parents bringing in whatever instruments you'd like to join in - flutes, guitars, cellos, drums. . . We'll do some playing by ear and also include these pieces:

Ocho Candelikas

Pastoral Symphony from the Messiah by Handel

Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring

Music from the pink book, Christmas Duets by Will Schmid, published by Hal Leonard, order #HL843351 from www.sheetmusicplus.com for $5.95 plus shipping.

Book 2 + students attend from 1:30 – 2:30

Book 1 students may watch from 1:30 – 2:00, and then play from 2:00 – 2:30

At 2:30 we'll have a family holiday show. Anyone may participate. Please, let Kari Gunderson know at kari@suzukicolumbus.org if you'd like to participate. This is always one of our most fun loving events. Please do bring video cameras to make holiday DVD's or tapes for your family to see your act.

Ask your private teachers help you with your act, and let your schools and churches and temples know that you have them prepared. This is a great season for sharing the gift of music making!

★ Holiday Service Recognition ★

Share your music during the holidays!

We will once again be recognizing students who share their music with others during this holiday season. Play for your school class, your families or friends, a retirement home, or for someone who needs cheering up – use your imagination. Email a description of your performance to Laurie at laurie@suzukicolumbus.org and it will be included in a special Holiday Service Recognition newsletter. You may also take a picture to send along with your description.

Recipients of your musical gifts will no doubt be delighted!!!
